Hello Everybody

Last Thursday, was a time to celebrate.

Happy Birthday, George Tower

On behalf of Ed of the Moose Lodge,

Doris Spears accepted Ed's winnings from the 50-50 drawing.

Joyce Wolfert was the lucky drawing winner for the 'Free Pass' card.

No Last Tip Winner

Bill Barker's number was drawn however he was not present to win.

Blue Grass Festival

Thank you to all who participated in a demo at the Blue Grass Festival last Saturday in the JC Penneys' parking lot at the Orange Park mall.

2019 Slate of Officers Nominations

At the Moose Promenaders' business meeting last Thursday, the nominations were announced, 2019 officers were Presidents-Laura Martin & Jim Maroldo, Vice-Presidents- Joyce Wolfert & Les Dodd, Secretary-Becky Burkett, Treasurer-Adrienne Farris. The voting on those nominated will be in November.

In addition, dues are now due and a message from our current treasurer, Suzanne Tower, "I am looking for dues of $10 per person to remain in good standing as a member of the Moose Promenaders. This includes $ 4.75 that is sent to pay for insurance to cover each member in case of an accident at a square dance. You can either bring a check, made payable to Moose Promenaders Square Dance Club, or cash. If you cannot make the dance in the next several weeks, you can mail it to: Suzanne Tower, 132 Heather Way, Orange Park FL 32073. Also, as discussed at the meeting last week, we will begin using a can to collect the $ 5 per dancer (member, student, or guest) at the front desk. We are also planning on having a check-in sheet at the front desk to make entry easier for everyone."

Peggy Myers bumped into Ruby & Alan Cheng in Portland, Maine. They were on the same cruise ship which Peggy described as “the size of a small city.”
